

No Faith in Fracking Fridays

Last Friday of every month

No Faith in Fracking Fridays at Preston New Road offer a space and a welcome for people moved by faith and spirit to express our shared resistance to fracking and our care for Earth.

People of all faiths and spiritualities and none are welcome.

Please join our faithful peace witness on last Fridays. Bring a brolly, a chair to sit on, food to snack on and colourful banners.

Dust down your much-loved poems and readings that chime with our theme.

Quaker silent vigil is held, 1 to 2pm, at the gates of Cuadrilla's fracking site, near Blackpool, on the last Friday of every month, ending with readings offered by anyone taking part. All are welcome to join and contribute.

Spiritual practices from other traditions also take place as led by those present on the day. These include walking meditation, chanting, prayer, readings, ritual and blessings.
